

R.O.S.S.

Resident Opportunities and Self-Sufficiency (ROSS) Program

The Fayette County Housing Authority has received a grant to provide services to assist eligible residents to become economically self-sufficient

The ROSS program provides access to:

- Training and increasing skills
- Resources needed for gaining better employment opportunities
- Job development, business development, driver's training; and
- Related aids to improving earning power

R.O.S.S.

Through partnership with Fayette County Community Action Agency and Goodwill Industries the following services are available for ROSS program participants:

- Driver's Training
- Certified Nursing Assistant Certification Program
- Homeownership Counseling
- Employment/Job Readiness Skills Training
- Resident Business Training
- Individual Development Account (Family Savings Account)
- Basic Skills and computer skill classes.
- Custodial and lawn maintenance training

Who is Eligible?

All residents age 18 or older of J. Watson Sembower, Bierer Wood Acres, East View Terrace, Crossland, South Hills, Snowden Terrace and Gibson Terrace are eligible for the program.

How do I apply?

Fill out an application and submit to the Fayette County Housing Authority or Fayette County Community Action

For more information contact:
Fayette County Housing Authority:
Dave Peters: 724/438-3516
Karen Girard: 724/437-1327

Fayette County Community Action:
Claude Massey, Community Action Case Manager 724/437-6050 ext. 254
Website: www: fccaa.org

Goodwill Industries:
Amy Kacmar: 724-437-9878
Website: www: goodwillpitt.org

